2. Executive Summary

The Strategic Academic and Investment Growth Initiative (SAIGI) is a transformative framework designed to elevate Paul University, Awka into a premier academic institution. This initiative is focused on institutional expansion, financial sustainability, and academic excellence through strategic investments, accreditation milestones, and partnerships.

A key highlight is the successful accreditation of the BSc Nursing Programme, completed on 28th October 2024 and officially approved on 24th December 2024. Additionally, on 18th January 2025, Peter Obi, former Governor of Anambra State and a presidential candidate in the last general 2023 presidential election, visited Paul University and donated ₦30 million to support educational advancement. This investment serves as a strong validation of the institution's growth potential and credibility, further solidifying its appeal to potential investors.

SAIGI is aligned with global best practices and structured to increase student enrollment, enhance research capacity, expand infrastructure, and drive revenue growth, ensuring long-term success.
